Dear Brier Gallihugh,

Congratulations! Your submission entitled "The Effect of Sexual Misconduct on Political Decision-Making" has been accepted for presentation at the 92nd Annual Meeting of the Midwestern Psychological Association, which will be held April 23-25, 2020, at the Palmer House Hilton in Chicago, IL. Instructions for papers and posters can be found on the MPA web site.

Please note that, for program considerations, some submissions have been changed from oral to poster, or vice versa. Your presentation type is a poster. It is tentatively scheduled for April 25, 2020, from 10:30 AM - 12:20 PM during the meeting. You will need to check this again when the program goes live, however, to ensure your time/date has not changed.

You can see a tentative version of the program (highly tentative) by clicking here. Please check your author order, title, and 50 word abstract to make sure it is accurate. If you need to make changes, you can log back into your profile and access the submission site which is now open to edit submissions (for title, authors, and 50-word abstract). You have until February 1st to make any changes to your submission.

By the middle of February, we will post the complete 2020 MPA Program on the MPA web site. Please make a note to check the website at that time for more finalized details about the scheduling of your presentation. You can check there now for hotel information as well.

All presenters must register for the meeting. The registration fee is lower for members of MPA than for non-members (membership is only for graduate students, post-bacs 3 years since graduating, post docs, and faculty). All presentations must have at least one MPA member as an author or be sponsored by an MPA member. You can pay membership dues as well as pre-register for the meeting at the MPA web site. You can register for the conferece here. Registering early means you can skip the long lines and save 50% compared to the onsite registration fee (if you're a member)! You can become a member if you're not already one here.

If you have any questions or concerns, please contact us at mjb70@psu.edu. Thank you very much for your participation in MPA! We look forward to seeing you at the meeting in April.

Sincerely,

The 2020 MPA Program Committee
Chair, Melissa Buelow
MPA Executive Officer, Michael J. Bernstein
